

American Ambassador
Rome
Italy

AMERICAN EMBASSY

ROME

Tuesday, February 1, 1921.

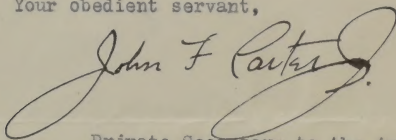

Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of January 12, to Ambassador Johnson, concerning your trip to Italy next summer for the purpose of examining the collections of coins in the Italian Museums.

In reply I am directed to inform you that it will not be necessary to attempt any arrangements before you arrive, as the Embassy can easily arrange for the permission to have free access to the collections that you desire to examine.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John F. Carter". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, sweeping initial "J" and a long, horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Private Secretary to the Ambassador.

Sydney P. Noe, Esq.,
Secretary of the American Numismatic Society,
Broadway, between 155th and 156th Streets,
New York City.